The Jain Chartered Accountants Federation (JCAAF) commemorated its 11th Foundation Day on Sunday, 15 June 2025, at Raymond Convention Centre, Thane. The event, with The Times of India as media partner, drew a crowd of over 800 chartered accountants, finance professionals, thought leaders, and dignitaries from across India.

The celebration began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, followed by a rendition of the Navkar mantra. The official JCAAF theme song was unveiled by Mehak Jain and Malika Jain, daughters of CA Amit Jain and Chhaya Jain. The inaugural session was anchored by CA Taruna Jain. JCAAF apex president CA Shantilal Kochar, apex chairman CA Jayesh Kala, and Mumbai president CA Amrit Porwal delivered insightful addresses, reflecting on JCAAF's journey of fostering professional growth and socio-economic empowerment. Past president CA Pradip Kapadia also addressed the audience, sharing glimpses of JCAAF's impactful activities.

INSIGHTFUL SESSIONS

The highlight of the morning was a captivating keynote session on 'Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the future of the accounting profession' by Dr Abhilasha Gaur, CEO of NASSCOM. A high-powered panel discussion followed, moderated by Mukesh Jain, VP and CTO of Capgemini. The panellists included Atul Tripathi, advisor to the PMO; Anubhav Pande, co-founder and CEO, a2i.ai; and Nida Parkar, VP, Citibank. Their insights on the transformation of audit, advisory, and compliance through AI were both profound and thought-provoking.

Following the panel discussion, a motivational session titled, 'Unstoppable mindset' by Rahul Kapoor Jain, inspired the audience. He emphasised the mantra of 'Constant, Consistent, Commitment' as the path to personal and professional excellence.

The afternoon panel discussion focused on the subject 'Wealth creation and protection in the age of disruption', moderated by CA Jinendra Bhandari of MGB Advisors LLP. The panellists included CA Surendra Mehta, general secretary, IBJA; CA Kamal Poddar, MD, Choice Broking; and CA Dharendra Surana, Intensive Financial Services. They discussed various aspects pertaining to the topic, including asset diversification (gold, silver, unlisted equity), and risk-managed wealth strategies—all of which drew strong audience engagement.

RECOGNISING ACHIEVEMENTS

As the day progressed, honours and recognition took centre stage.
