Historic Day for JIO: Launch of Two New Federations

Inauguration Ceremony, dated 14th September 2025

A historic milestone unfolded as JIO inaugurated two new federations: the Jain Pharma Federation (JPF) and the Jain Company Secretary Federation (JCSF). The grand event was graced by Gurudev Acharya Naypadmasagarji Surishwaraji Maharajsaheb, Shri Mangalprabhat Lodha, Shri Lalit Gandhi, Shri Ghewarchand Bohra, and over 400 dignitaries.

With Shri Chetan Darda (President, JPF) and Shri Amrut Parekh (President, JCSF) at the helm, both federations mark a new era of collaboration and leadership. Special recognition was given to Dr. Kamal Jain and Adv. Ajay Jain for their pivotal contributions, with immense support from JIO, JDF, JCAF, JAF, and JBF.

The efforts of Dr. Payal Jain, CA Punit Mehta, and Adv. Ajay Jain ensured seamless coordination for this landmark initiative. With seven more federations in the pipeline, JIO continues to expand its footprint—uniting professionals and strengthening the community's voice across industries.

DESK OF PRESIDENT

September 2025 marks a milestone for the Jain community, reflecting both strategic growth and collective compassion. Under the guidance of Gurudev Acharya Naypadma Sagar Surishwarji M.S., JCAF proudly announced the launch of two new federations, the Jain Pharma Federation (JPF) and the Jain Company Secretaries Federation (JCSF).

Led by Shri Chetan Darda of Bangalore, the JPF will unite pharmaceutical professionals and businesses to foster collaboration, innovation, and ethical growth. The JCSF, under the leadership of CS Amrut K. Parakh from Ichalkaranji, will connect company secretaries across the community, strengthening governance and compliance standards. Together, these federations reflect a broader vision: harnessing professional expertise not only for career advancement but also for societal progress and community unity.

Equally inspiring, September 17 witnessed the Terapanth Yuvak Parishad's global blood donation drive at more than 7,500 locations. JCAF contributed in Mumbai through 150+ camps, arranging refreshments worth over ₹30 lakhs for donors and volunteers. This initiative underscored our community's ability to mobilize for service at scale while staying rooted in compassion.

These milestones remind us that true progress lies in balancing professional excellence with humanitarian commitment strengthening networks while uplifting society.

With regards,

CA Shantilal Kochar

President, JCAF (Apex)

Dharma Charcha Series: Exploring Jain Wisdom

Understanding Karma and How to Break Its Cycle

21st August 2025 | Speaker: Ms. Swanubhuti Jain

Opening with a powerful analogy by CA Mahavir—accounting principles as karma—this session drew parallels between good deeds as credits, bad deeds as debits, and karmic reserves that bind the soul. Swanubhuti Jain emphasized that true dharma transcends both punya and paap, highlighting the eternal nature of the soul compared to the mechanical functioning of AI. She introduced learning resources on practicalgenism.com and her YouTube channel, “Life Changing Jain Principles,” which hosts 500+ lectures. Participants left with a deeper awareness of karma, dharma, and moksha.

Pratikraman – Anuvrat: Small Vows, Big Transformations

23rd August 2025 | Speaker: Shreyansh Jain

This session revisited the five Mahavratas—Ahimsa, Satya, Brahmacharya, Acharya, and Aparigraha—framing them as paths to balance and spiritual evolution. Shreyansh Jain spoke on Brahmacharya as mindful control and connected minimalism to spiritual sustainability, citing Gandhian principles and Mahavira’s economics. He urged participants to adopt meditation, reflection, and mindful restraint in everyday life, setting the stage for the next session on “Renunciation as a Leadership Quality.”

Concept of Tirtha and Tirtha Yatra in Jainism

4th September 2025 | Speaker: CS Arpit Shah

CS Arpit Shah explored the historical, cultural, and spiritual importance of Jain Tirths. Drawing from archaeology, ancient texts, and heritage sites, he shed light on travel practices, rituals, and challenges faced by early pilgrims. He also highlighted the frequent misrepresentation of Jain sites as Buddhist by colonial historians, underscoring the importance of correcting historical narratives. The session concluded with gratitude for his scholarly insights.

Forgiveness (Kshama): The Ultimate Strength

5th September 2025 | Speaker: Dr. Bipin Doshi

Dr. Doshi delivered a profound talk on forgiveness as both a spiritual and scientific necessity. He linked anger to serious health risks, while emphasizing forgiveness as a source of harmony, healing, and liberation. Drawing from Jain philosophy and modern science, he explained conditional, unconditional, and supreme forgiveness. Concepts like Swark, Shamanapna, and Parak Shamanapna were discussed, alongside the karmic science behind anger and forgiveness. The session closed with gratitude and anticipation of his upcoming series on Atra Papastanak.

Seva in Action: First Anna Daan under JCAF Punya SIP

Samajik Vikas Kendra Ashram, Malad, dated 30th August 2025

The journey of JCAF Punya SIP began with a heartwarming act of compassion—its very first Anna Daan Seva at Samajik Vikas Kendra Ashram, Malad. This initiative was not just about distributing food; it was about weaving kindness, responsibility, and inclusivity into collective action.

Sixteen members, including six children, came together to serve, creating an atmosphere of joy and togetherness. Their presence turned the seva into a family experience, where even the youngest volunteers learned the value of giving.

The Contribution

- ₹15,000 from Punya SIP contributions
- ₹21,000 from JCAF North West Chapter
- Total: ₹36,000

The Seva

- Purchased ₹35,000 worth of ration from D-Mart
- Distributed 1,000 fresh fruits to residents
- Gifted stationery, books, and toys to children

The Impact

The most profound outcome was ensuring a full month of quality ration for the Virar Ashram, home to over 40 elderly residents and children. The radiant smiles of the elders and the delight of children receiving stationery and toys captured the true spirit of seva—compassion in action.

Seva Beyond Words

This first activity set the tone for JCAF Punya SIP's mission: transforming small, steady contributions into meaningful change. By involving children in seva, the initiative also planted seeds of empathy and responsibility in the next generation.

The JCAF community salutes every donor, participant, and volunteer whose efforts turned this vision into reality. With this strong beginning, Punya SIP is poised to touch many more lives with care, dignity, and hope.

Thought Of The Day

- Compassion is the highest form of wisdom.
- Silence and self-reflection speak louder than anger.
- Happiness grows when desires shrink.

- Every small act of kindness lightens the weight of karma.
- Peace begins when we stop competing and start understanding.
- The purest wealth is contentment of the heart.
- Non-violence is not weakness—it is the courage to care.
- Self-discipline is the path to true freedom.

Shaping Professional Excellence Through Knowledge with Whizconnect 2.0

Jalbai Street, Grant Road West, dated 19th September 2025

The 9th meeting of Whizconnect 2.0, held on 19th September 2025 at C-102, Jalbai Street, Grant Road (W), was an engaging forum of knowledge-sharing and collaboration. Focused on the themes of Income Tax Assessments & Appeals, M&A & Fund Raising in the IT Sector, and Valuations, the event brought together members to gain fresh perspectives on evolving professional challenges and opportunities.

CA Amit Jain

CA Amit Jain set the foundation for the discussions with a comprehensive overview of income tax assessments under the Income-tax Act, 1961. He explained the different types of assessments and examined how the faceless assessment regime, coupled with recent CBDT circulars, is reshaping the compliance landscape. By tracing the appellate process through the CIT(A), ITAT, High Court, and Supreme Court, he emphasized the need for strong documentation, meticulous preparation, and strategic thinking when addressing disputes. His perspective highlighted that effective tax practice is not just about meeting compliance requirements but about anticipating procedural challenges and managing them with foresight.

CA Nishant Saruparia

CA Nishant Saruparia brought the spotlight to the IT sector, where mergers, acquisitions, and fund-raising have become key levers of growth. He explained how deal structuring, due diligence, and regulatory compliance under FEMA and RBI impact transaction success, particularly in cross-border contexts. His session also explored the complexities of valuing and treating intangibles such as intellectual property and goodwill, which are central to the business models of technology companies. Drawing from real case studies, he provided insights into the strategies used by IT companies to secure funding through venture capital, private equity, ESOPs, and convertible instruments. His discussion reinforced that in technology-driven businesses, value creation is often rooted less in tangible assets and more in intellectual capital, innovation, and scalability.

CA Sachin Shah

CA Sachin Shah concluded the technical sessions with a deep dive into the world of valuations. He explained the application of key methodologies such as discounted cash flow, comparable company analysis, comparable transactions, and NAV, and linked them to their statutory context under the Income-tax Act, FEMA, and the Companies Act, 2013. Beyond methodology, he addressed the practical hurdles of valuing start-ups and intangible-heavy technology companies, highlighting the interpretive judgment often required in such cases. By emphasizing the role of Chartered Accountants in issuing certifications, fairness opinions, and ensuring compliance, he positioned valuation as a discipline that extends beyond numbers—it is about articulating a business's future potential in a credible and defensible way.

The meeting concluded with an interactive networking session over breakfast, where members actively exchanged perspectives, identified synergies, and explored collaborative opportunities. More than an event, the 9th edition of Whizconnect 2.0 reaffirmed its purpose as a platform for thought leadership—enabling professionals to navigate regulatory change, understand new business models, and strengthen their collective impact on the financial and business ecosystem.
